My Insolent Children Refuse To Obey Me

“My people refuse to obey Me, My son. Did I not say ‘go into all the world?’ Then why do they refuse to obey My command to go, instead staying at home, My son? I called them to give up all they own, instead they insist on acquiring more from the world. This I did not call them to do, to acquire more for self, building up personal kingdoms of self. I called to give away all, and this they have consistently refused to do, to give away all to My poor and to follow Me literally. That they refuse to do— they are very covetous. They want the world and more. They go to work everyday to acquire more. This I did not say to do but to follow Me literally, picking up their cross of punishment and death to self, doing My will instead of their own. This they have refused to do, throwing down My Cross for their lives years ago, My son. This they refuse to do in obeying Me in all things. Destroy My people, My son, because they refuse to obey Me, doing My will in all things. They will not go to other nations to preach My Gospel, My son. They stay at home to build up kingdoms of self in an easy land full of wealth and pleasure of sin. This I condemn, My son, My peoples’ easy lifestyle apart from Me. Yes, they refuse to know Me, to go into all My world to preach My Gospel around the world, My son. They shall be gathered up, My insolent children, and cast into My Lake of Fire, My son. And there they shall stay there for all eternity, insolent children of self who refuse to do My will for their lives. Who do they think they are to ignore My commands and to stay at home apart from My will, My son? They shall be cast into Hell, wicked Church of Mine! Your LORD has spoken. Amen and amen forever, My son!”